Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Future of the Non-Elect Dead: The Vast Majority of Mankind in All Ages This is an Argument or View concerning the Non-Elect s Future Probation in Resurrection, - for God does not prove that which is already tried and proved, as fallen and death-doomed, - for a right to take of the Tree of Life individually, (thus differing from their doom to death collectively) if found worthy of so doing after the judgment of the many or the few stripes according to their lives in Adam, as may or may not be needed for the character which they thus formed when they first lived on Earth. This View is based upon the Word of God, which I humbly believe has been, at least in some degree, rightly divided according to the requirement of St. Paul from God s workmen in the Scriptures; and I need hardly say is in favour of such Probation for such persons who so constitute the vast majority of Mankind in all Ages. That Divine aid which the Church once...
