It s not that he s a balding, middle-aged man who is 75 pounds overweight, behind on his rent and in desperate need of female companionship. It s not the fact that nobody takes him seriously as a private detective and his PI license looks like a library card. It s not even that he is forced to work out of a janitorial supply closet while his office is being painted. No, these are just minor annoyances in his everyday life. Loomis also befriends the captivating Jill Morgan, who first appears at his office vacuum-packed in a little black dress, with a tale of murder to tell. The plot of The Fat Detective recalls the gritty crime stories popularized by writers like Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler, while also paying homage to...
