Coping and the Development of Regulation: Summer 2009

By CAD (Child & Adolescent Development), Ellen A. Skinner, Melanie J. Zimmer-Gembeck

John Wiley and Sons Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Coping and the Development of Regulation: Summer 2009, CAD (Child & Adolescent Development), Ellen A. Skinner, Melanie J. Zimmer-Gembeck, A developmental conceptualization that emphasizes coping as regulation under stress opens the way to explore synergies between coping and regulatory processes, including self-regulation; behavioral, emotion, attention, and action regulation; ego control' self-control' compliance; and volition. This volume, with chapters written by experts on the development of regulation and coping during childhood and adolescence, is the first to explore these synergies. The volume is geared toward researchers working in the broad areas of regulation, coping, stress, adversity, and resilience. For regulation researchers, it offers opportunities to focus on age-graded changes in how these processes function under stress and to consider multiple targets of regulation simultaneously--emotion, attention, behavior--that typically are examined in isolation. For researchers interested in coping, this volume offers invigorating theoretical and operational ideas. For researchers studying stress, adversity, and resilience, this volume highlights coping as one pathway through which exposure to adversity shapes children's long-term development. The authors also address cross-cutting developmental themes, such as the role of stress, coping, and social relationships in the successive integration of regulatory...
