He began to notice many changes in his life and his acts of goodness; he had a sense of humility, instead of pride; kindness where there had always been contention; generosity in place of greed; compassion where there had always been apathy or contempt for his fellowman. (The Old Man) The Lord said to me, At the end of each day bring me all your thoughts from that day in a bucket. This will be your test of how much you have of heaven. (Heaven in a Bucket) Michael plans his life around his desire to see the world, but in the wake of his dream coming true, he encounters something greater, beyond what he had imagined. Each story in this series of Little Books About the Magnitude of God reveals the powerful working of His grace in different hearts and lives.
