Chandler of New York: In the House of Representatives, October 10, 1913. Mr. Chandler of New York. Mr. Speaker, I wish now to address myself to the subject of Roumanian persecution of the Jew in defiance of the treaty of Berlin, and I preface my remarks by reciting a joint resolution which I have introduced this afternoon. The joint resolution is as follows: House joint resolution 138. Whereas the following is the literal text of Articles XLIII and XLIV of the treaty of Berlin of July 13, 1878: XLIII. The high contracting parties recognize the independence of Roumania, subject to the conditions set forth in the two following articles. XLIV. In Roumania the difference of religious creeds and confessions shall not be alleged against any person as a ground for exclusion or incapacity in matters relating to the enjoyment of civil and political rights, admission to public employments, functions, and honors, or the exercise of the various professions and industries in any locality whatsoever. The freedom and outward exercise of all forms of worship shall...
