Faber & Faber. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Devil's Lunch: Selected Poems, Aleksander Ristovic, Charles Simic, Charles Simic, The powerful and deeply moving work of the Serbian poet Aleksandar Ristovic, published for the first time in the United states. "Make me a long coat of heavy cloth, tailor, ""the kind that won't fray, ""and of a dark color, ""so no one will notice the cigarette ashes." "Make the dark trousers of the same material, ""to last as long as I want them to, ""wearing them to visit many cities, villages, ""and other out-of-the-way places."" * * * *""Make me a dark jacket, tailor, with wide, deep pockets""to clench my fists in, while watching the one""they're dragging from my table into the bushes, ""which begin to shake after a few moments."-from "Gingerbread Heart" Whether addressing pigs, speaking for prostitutes, or considering lavatories, the great Serbian poet Ristovic (1933-94) revealed a capacious yet unsentimental sympathy with the despised, downtrodden, and disregarded. "Devil's Lunch," hitherto unpublished in America, is a quirky and moving selection of his work greatly enriched by Charles Simic's earthy and authentic translations. Simic, himself a Pulitzer Prize-winning contemporary poet, allows us to fully appreciate a major talent who always spoke with humor, honesty, and compassion.
