Excerpt: .so great, and the horse so slow, that I suffered greatly with cold, and my jaws were almost locked before I reached the fire, and it seemed as though I could put myself against the hot stove without burning. This led me to send for a pair of baptizing pants, costing sixteen dollars, and as I have had to baptize so many, they have paid their cost already. I baptized nearly one hundred and forty that Conference year. While these revivals were going on all around, our meeting-house at Whiting was being finished. By faith in the blessed Jesus I was able to get the money to pay the bills and secure all the materials, and carpet the pulpit, altar, and aisles. When the painter was painting it he wanted the liberty to fresco it, and the head workman, I. H. Estey, said he would pay the bills out of his claim on the house. The whole thing was carried through in good style, and on the back end was painted in oil colors with the words Holiness to the Lord in the centre; behind the pulpit, God be merciful to me a sinner on one side, and O Lord, I will praise thee on the other. We reared it by faith, we plastered it with love, we finished it by prayer and praise. It was a new creation, and so well done, that our enemies delighted in it to a certain extent, but...
