Course of Studies for the Elementary Schools of Alberta; Grades I to VIII Inclusive The Department welcomes the opportunity of consultation with and advice from the representative persons who have been named by their respective organizations to form the personnel of this committee. Momentous matters must come before the com mittee for consideration and recommendation it it is to realize to the full the possibilities of its unique opportunity. It must deter mine the subjects which are of most worth to Alberta boys and girls. It must plan a course which will make any other than thor ough work and the development of habits of industry impossible, no matter what subjects have to be sacrificed. The new course must be ?exible and easily adaptable to the varying needs of the children or all parts of the Province. The curriculum must be made to contribute its full share to the development of character, right attitudes and good citizenship in Alberta youth. Finally the committee must produce a piece of work which will meet the de mands or the public for an education which is more practical, that will appeal to educators as sound pedagogically and command the enthusiastic support of the thousands of people in this Province who are interested in education. In general the thought has been that the Course of Study must be a definite handbook and guide to the teacher in interpreting the various subjects. The authors were urged to so organize and write their courses as to afford inspiration to the teachers as they used them. To this and not only has the general scope of the work been clearly...
