Harper/QPB. 1 Paperback(s), 2014. soft. Book Condition: New. From the "perceptive and piercing" author (NYTBR) of The World We Found and The Space Between Us, this is a heartbreakingly honest novel about friendship and secrets, forgiveness and second chances. An experienced psychologist, Maggie knows to keep a distance from her patients. But when she meets a young Indian woman who tried to kill herself, her detachment disintegrates. Lakshmi is desperately lonely, trapped in a loveless marriage to a domineering man, and Maggie senses that she needs a friend more than a therapist. But crossing professional boundaries has its price: as Maggie and Lakshmi's relationship deepens, long-buried secrets emerge, shaking their faith in each other and forcing them to confront painful choices in their own lives. "A taut, suspenseful page-turner with depth, heart, and psychological credibility whose believable and enduring characters ponder the meaning of friendship, the challenges of marriage, and the value of storytelling itself." Boston Globe "Explores cross-cultural friendships, troubled marriages, love, loss, and forgiveness with [the author's] characteristic wisdom, humor, and warmth. This satisfying, psychologically complex story will appeal to a wide range of readers. its characters are both smart and likable without being sentimental or idealized." Library Journal (starred review) 317.
