Assateague Island Inspirations comprises a series of poems, created over several years that celebrated a place of peace, of natural beauty and of a gathering place of family and friends. From healing dawns to dusks, from meditative jogs in the surf to watching dolphins leap the waves to tracking sailboats in the distance, from admiring kites in the air to toddlers moving sand, from approving teenagers and oldsters out running crashing waves to heeding the eternal roar of the sea--all these tremendous joys needed to be recorded for the world. Thanks life!.
