XLIBRIS. Paperback. Condition: New. 110 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. My name is Dawn Jones and I was born and raised in Philadelphia Pennsylvania. I had always had an interest in love and romance, I mean true romance with a little humor and excitement to boot. My main goal is to get you to see yourself through my stories and hopefully relate, or know someone who can possibly relate. I am thirty six years old but look more like twenty possibly eighteen so Ive been told a lot. I have three beautiful children ranging from eighteen, nine and eight. I have a wonderful, supportive loving husband and I have a mother whos by the way is a Reverend Evangelist. My mothers name is Reverend Emmaline Jones. Ive been raised in the church all my life and always had a Christian upbringing from my mother. I write what everyone else is afraid to write. I write the truth of whats said in relationships. I write how someone gets hurt when their heart gets broken. I write about ghetto black love as it is portrayed in some cases, not most but some although my stories are mostly fiction it can relate to some instances you find yourself or someone you know going through, and if it do than I do believe I have done my job as a good and insightful writer to entertain you and move you while you take this journey into an imaginative place of love, sex, murder, adulterous chaotic, and stormy romance, but however you can relax because in my stories the storms dont last forever theres always a rainbow at the end of the tunnel thats straight up for sure. So to conclude this, look for my next upcoming novels such as The Love That Almost Cost...
