Just what was the relationship of the unfortunate victim, to the known Stranges of that day, we are unable to definitely say. CV THAT S STRANGE. A good old Scotch friend of mine relates the following story: In his boyhood days in Scotland, there was in the town that he lived in a lawyer by the name of Strange. He was generally known to be a very upright and honorable man, though that is far from the generally accepted reputation of the legal fraternity. Eventually this honest old lawyer paid nature's debt, and was buried in the village cemetery. Soon afterwards his friends selected a suitable stone to erect over his grave, and after some deliberation it was decided to engrave on the stone these words only: Here lies an honest lawyer. In arriving at this...
