

Memory and the Quest for Self: A Jungian Reading of Alice Walker and Margaret a (Paperback)

By Ron Vitale

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Explore in detail the feminine self-discovery journey that Margaret Atwood and Alice Walker both describe in four of their novels. In order to explore this process, C. G. Jung s psychological developmental theories of the human personality are utilized. While performing a Jungian analysis on Surfacing, Cat s Eye, The Color Purple, and The Temple of My Familiar, the author proposes that the female protagonists in these novels incorporate three distinct actions into their behavior that enable them to embark on a self-discovery journey and find a self-identity that frees them from the trauma of their pasts.

READ ONLINE
[2.49 MB]

Reviews

The most effective ebook i possibly go through. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Its been designed in an extremely basic way and it is just after i finished reading this ebook by which basically transformed me, modify the way i believe.

-- Giovanny Rowe

It is an incredible publication i actually have actually go through. I really could comprehended everything out of this composed e pdf. Its been designed in an exceedingly simple way and is particularly just following i finished reading this publication where actually changed me, alter the way i think.

-- Prof. Colton Jakubowski IV