

Crafted Meat

By Haase, Hendrik / Klanten, Robert

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Die Gestalten Verlag | The new meat culture: craft and recipes (American English edition) | This book is about fine charcuterie made with passion and respect. Combining quality with consciousness, young butchers are rediscovering pâtés, sausages, and cold cuts. Crafted Meat provides an overview of today's new meat culture with must-know information, delicious recipes, and expert tips. | Meat is back -in many forms. Whether as salami, air-dried ham, bratwurst, bloodsausage, pâté, or pulled pork, meat is truly experiencing a renaissance. Today, the enjoyment of meat is bucking recent ascetic food trends. Quality artisanal meats that combine tradition and innovation are replacing questionable mass-market industrial products. Whether one is sampling, enjoying, or making, attention is being paid to how the animals are bred, fed, and raised, as well as historical influences, regional specialties, and production methods. With the right mix of creative yet grounded craftsmanship, young butchers are making delectable products from premium ingredients. In addition to being purveyors of quality meats, they offer their customers insider knowledge, new impulses, and outstanding service. Today's young connoisseurs are also propagating the Nose to Tail movement, which is based on age-old traditions of preparing and eating an entire animal in a respectful and sustainable way. Crafted Meat is a compelling visual reference on today's new meat culture. It documents current developments, products, and background stories for both...
