Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.CANOEING THE KASKASKIA is the real-life account of a father and son as they explore the length of the 275-mile long Kaskaskia River of Illinois. The voyageurs take one day per year over 23 years to complete the navigation. The story begins with Eric as a dutiful 10 year-old son and traces his life through turbulent adolescence, young adulthood, to maturity. After graduating from Eastern Illinois University, he taught high school social science and was a baseball and basketball coach. He then earned a Masters degree in Counseling from Roosevelt University and later a Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology from Marquette University. His 26 years in the field of psychology included work as a clinical counselor, Counseling Center Assistant Director and Director, Assistant Professor and most prominently as Coordinator of Paraprofessional Training and Services. The University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, Kansas Benedictine...
