Not illustrated. 1853 Excerpt: .that the end and purpose of catechism is in good and natural order fitly applied to serve the good use of confirmation by the bishop, at which time the bishop which confirmeth doth not teach but examine, and in his whole manner of opposing useth such form as here in like sort the Catechumenus or child is prepared unto; which is also not done without example, for the same manner is in the short catechism now used in the Church of England at confirmation. Now surely there are no greater means of advancing true religion and rooting out of errors than these two, that is to say, catechism or good instruction of youth, and good information of ecclesiastical ministers in sound truth, and the proofs thereof, howsoever perhaps they may lack some full furniture of other learnings. And therewith for my part I have long thought it a much better way toward removing of heresies and superstitions (whereof Rome hath brought us and left us plenty) to deal first with plain setting out of truth as not in controversy, without dealing at the beginning with the strife of confutation. For so both discretion and charity in the teacher is easilier kept, and truth once being settled, error will fall of itself, so that he which hath once thus with conference of God s word conceived a certain and stayed judgment of truth, shall either wonder how absurd errors have been received, or shall with less peril...
