Don t Be Afraid of Air Raids: Memoir of a Japanese Boy During the Pacific War (Paperback)

By Yashi Nozawa

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .About This Book This is author s memoir, covering the period from spring of 1942 to the end of the same year. At that time, he was eleven years old boy and believed that it was Japan s most glorious period throughout 2600 years of the long Japanese history. The time was the early part of the Pacific War, and it corresponded to the darkest time of the United States in the modern time. A few months ago, the Japanese surprise attack on the Pearl Harbor destroyed a major part of the Pacific Fleet. Then Japanese Imperial Army occupied most of colonial territories of Western countries in Southeast and Northeast Asia within a short time span. As you know, Japan lost the war, and the United States Armed Forces occupied Japan later. There were many documents about the experience of the war, but most of documents dealt with battles and post war situation of Japan. Almost no document exists about Japanese condition during the wartime. The author has lived more than fifty years in the United States, and many occasions, people asked him...
