Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Heart s Blood is set in the borderlands of southern Arizona, and spans two generations beginning in the early 1970s. It opens in a flashback when Ty McNeil, as a young child, watches his mother lowered into her grave. We jump forward 25 years to his fateful decision to leave an itinerant life for a ramshackle ranch on the Arizona/Mexico border, taking with him a bronco named Red-Eye. He reunites with Ware and Suzanne Lewis, elderly neighbors who are like family to him and support his efforts to start anew. He also renews a friendship with Lisa, his former wife from a brief marriage, and her husband Charlie Ritter, a Border Patrol agent who becomes his best friend. Their son, CJ, worships Ty s superb skill as a horseman, and plays an unexpected role as the story unfolds. Ty s makes the ranch livable once again, combats his own isolation, and finally takes in a very young and pregnant illegal crosser, called Mana. After her baby is born she disappears, and Ty becomes a parent, choosing a path that in turn determines the intricate outcomes of the novel. He meets Claire, woman who is the love of his life. Lita, his little girl, now competes with Claire for his attention. Her blood father, a brutal criminal called Blanco, enters the story, determined to claim Lita. He will stalk her throughout much of the story. Ty now learns that he is CJ s real father, conceived just before his divorce many years ago. Ty is shocked, but attempts to calm CJ, painting a rosy picture for the future. CJ rejects it and turns his heart against Ty out of loyalty...
