Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The White Robed Company: A Discourse Occasioned by the Death of Mrs. J. W. Boynton, Preached in the Village Church, South Coventry, Sabbath, May 5th, 1850 It is through great tribulation that the saints enter the heavenly state. Go and knock at the door of that great tomb which contains the precious dust that Christ watches over in its long slumber till the glorious morning of the resurrection, and ask how many perished by disease and the ordinary death of man; what multitudes have been all their life-time subject to bondage through fear of a persecuting foe; how many have been hunted like wild beasts from one hiding place to another till death was welcome! how many have dwelt long in damp and loathsome dungeons! how many have been thrown to wild beasts! how many have felt instruments of torture; how many have perished in the indiscriminate slaughter of persecution; how many have been burned at the stake! And I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held, and they cried with a loud voice, saying, how long Oh Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth. The saints who are permitted to live in outward peace come out of great tribulation. It was in view of spiritual struggles, which every child of God feels, that a holy apostle exclaimed, O wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death! The spiritual conflicts of the Christian, the struggles of opposing principles within him,...
