

The It Girls of La Sembradora: Bulls, Blood and Brujeria (Paperback)

By Nancy De La Zerda

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Matadors were the rock stars for young girls in 1930 s La Sembradora, a dusty village in northern Mexico. When a famous matador from Spain, El Victor, comes to town, level-headed Inma and her fun-loving cousin Eva get wrapped up in the infectious excitement that grips the village. They fuss in frenzy about everything: Will their constant chaperone, the elegant man about town, Rico, invite them to the bullfight? What ever should they wear? Will El Victor be at the afternoon social after the bullfight? Are his eyes really green? Meanwhile, an elderly neighbor, Dona Inez, reveals a fortune teller s warning of evil to come the day of the big event. The girls go to hilarious extremes to get ready for the big day, which proves to be an adventure they will never forget.
