Jason Davis was born and raised to be a trained assassin. His father saw his gift at an early age and sent him to be trained by the Navy Seals. Jason became that and more for his brother Jordan who has taken his father's place as a member of a clan called the Stand. But the killer that Jason became, is the killer that no one can control. Not even his family. At the age of twenty-four, Jason was one of the most feared assassins around the country. He has been using his connects to find whoever his older brother Jordan wanted him to kill. He did them without questioning Jordan's motives. What Jordan didn't know, was that Jason was becoming inhuman with every kill. He started killing for the pleasure of it. And the woman that used to keep him from going over, was no longer able to do that. Until Joel. Joel's sass-talking, soul food cooking, and southern mentality, puts Jason in his place every time. She is not afraid to speak her mind and...
