

Switching Gods: Poems Tales for Waking Up (Paperback)

By MR Paul a Chubbuck

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From the Foreword Waking up is a tricky business. It isn't a self-help project. It isn't about getting better at anything. It doesn't guarantee happiness. Ultimately, it's about seeing the true nature of things more clearly. Paul Chubbuck's new collection of poems: Switching Gods: Poems and Tales for Waking Up is aptly titled. It doesn't dangle happy platitudes about the joys of waking up, but, rather, manages to celebrate both the pain and the bliss that comes from seeing things more clearly. No one switches gods lightly or playfully. It's always a profound and painful business to recognize, as Chubbuck notes in the poem his book is named for, The prayers we thought unanswered really were, but by the wrong God. This collection of poems and brief stories contains quiet meditations on the coming of winter alongside angry laments for the burdens of generations that we unwittingly carry with us and pass along unconsciously. His poems are observational, allowing the natural world to reflect back his inner state, and mytho-poetic dialogues with his own...
