O. , 2007. LC Number: KF27 . S6 2007zh OCLC Number: (OCoLC)191868396 Subject: Hurricane Katrina, 2005. Excerpt: . . . 9 businesses to access assistance and contract information from various contracting agencies. The HCIC contracting specialists took thousands of calls. The web site got nearly 57, 000 hits. The operation of that has now been turned over to the SBA, and we will use that to support us in future disasters. We also adapted our business matchmaking initiative in conducting a six city mobile registration tour in the Gulf. That mobile tour provided help for small businesses with electronic registration in the central contractor registry and business counseling was also provided by the SBA resource partners through the SBDC and SCORE network. Following the registration events, our PCRs worked with over 700 small businesses to match capabilities of the firms with the needs of the procurement activities. Those registered small businesses have received more than 650 million in contracts and their profiles have been uploaded to the GSAs electronic notification system for procurement opportunities. We've held small business matchmaking sessions with many of the major agencies. We've held dozens of small business outreach events in coordination with state and local and Federal groups, which have been extremely well-attended. And as I've shared my written testimony, in the interest of time, I won't get into it. We have many success stories to highlight. In addition to prime contracts, obviously subcontracting puts much needed dollars in the hands of local small businesses in the Gulf. The SBA worked extensively with the minority business councils, New Orleans Youth...
