Have you ever been in love, but was hung up on past heartache? After years of abuse from her father, she mustered up the strength to leave him in search of independence and happiness. Little did she know, she would find it in the arms of Jonah Redwood, an aspiring lawyer who falls hard for her since day one. Even though she loves him, her past relationship makes her mind play tricks on her. And when her brother finds out about his wife's infidelities, it makes her less of a believer in fairy tales. Can Jonah show her in love, there can be happy endings, or is she doomed to follow in her father's footsteps? This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
