Marketing inconsistencies result in expenses most businesses cannot afford. Every executive, from CEOs to the senior VPs, should read this book and implement a marketing alignment program if they expect to succeed and achieve some level of market leadership. Advertising legend Leo Burnett once said, It is essential for a brand to maintain a consistent face in every aspect of the media: in classical advertising, at point of purchase, through mailings, or even touch-screen interactive shopping. This book expands on that philosophy and threads it into every company message broadcast, written or spoken, from inside or outside the organization.
