Excerpt: . . . money to the Sunday school fund. At different periods during the year the members of the Sunday school decide by vote to what cause this money shall be given. Many different causes have been helped, among others Mrs. Millss school in China, a mission for the deaf in Paris, the San Francisco sufferers, the local Washington charities, and the mountain schools in Kentucky. The list of causes contributed to since the beginning of our Sunday school is a long one, and in the history of the school I believe that between 1, 500 and 1, 600 has been thus distributed. Mr. A. W. Dobyms. Instead of the pupils having an active part in the Sunday work five times a year, as Mr. Hall has told us about, I want to say that in the Arkansas school our pupils take a very prominent part every...
