By K a Browne

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The introduction of a nine-book series, the fantasy is a steampunk-inspired series of stories of Ashleigh Peters, a young woman from Brooklyn that finds herself sucked into the world of Eleusis. the action begins well into our story as Ash, her attendant and an old lunatic simply known as the Maestro test a human flying machine from a cliff in Eleusis. The chronicles then flashes back to Ashleigh s last days on Earth and we meet her family, learn of her life in Brooklyn, and what she leaves behind as she is transported to this new world. As the story begins, we get the hint that Ashleigh s travels may not have been a fluke of nature, that there is a reason, a force guiding it. This fact is what propels the series forward, and as her chronicler points out, puts into question whether Ashleigh is some sort of savior or an agent of nefarious forces. The series is both a travelogue and diary of Ashleigh s life as she unravels the mysteries of Eleusis and how she came to...
