He gives you notice that he gives his wife up to the sacred lodge. He takes this opportunity to announce to you this great act of his. During the time of the announcement absolute silence, so far as possible, was maintained, for the announcement was one of the most solemn episodes of the ceremony. SACRIFICE or FooD AND THE FEAST. By the time the Crier returned, the Lodge-maker s wife had sent to the entrance of the tipi many vessels of food for the evening feast. The Chief Priest took up a piece of meat and tore off a small piece. The root was passed to him. He touched his finger to the ground, put it to his tongue, took a bite of root, spat five times upon the meat and gave it to the Lodge-maker. The latter arose. motioned the meat aloft once and to the east four times and deposited it on the ground under the sacred pipe. He rubbed...
