Excerpt from The Civilian, Vol. 8: A Fortnightly Journal Devoted to the Interests of the Civil Service of Canada; March 17, 1916 Why not hang the keys in boxes near the main doors so that anyone could get them without stopping the elevators? If necessary, connect the doors of the boxes with a gong at the police post in the basement so that the officer on duty would be notified if the boxes were opened at an improper time. A better arrangement might cost several dollars, but surely the safety of hundreds of lives is worth insuring!
