Excerpt from Modern Criticism; Or the New Theology: The Battle of the Critics OF late years many eminent Writers have so questioned the accuracy of the literal sense of Scripture, upon critical and scientific grounds, as to weaken the faith of many in its divine authority, and to lead them to view a large portion thereof as a Jewish, and therefore now a bygone, superstition. The necessity for this criticism has been thus urged upon us. It is certain, says Dr. Colenso, that in this age of ours every part of the New Testament as well as the Old, will be subject to a close and searching criticism. We cannot, if we would, escape this trial of our faith for God, our God and Father, has called us to it. As plainly as in the days of the Reformation men were called to brace up their minds for a mighty struggle between the powers of light and the powers of darkness, so surely, if we read the signs of the times, the like struggle is coming now, nay, rather, is come upon us.
