Excerpt from Lincoln Vs Liquor He saw the ruin which ardent spirits were causing, and became strictly temperate, refusing to allow a drop of liquor to pass down his throat. Historians have written that Abraham Lincoln was uncontaminated by a single vice. Intimate personal friends, close political associates, those who best knew him, from his youthful days in Indiana until the end of his glorious life, have verified what the historians have written. Lincoln belonged to no church, but he was a Christian. He was the true model of the Christian character as set forth in the sermon on the mount. Thou shalt love thy Lord, thy God, with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself is the grandest rule of action ever spoken for the guidance of man. Lincoln observed it. Upon it, the broad structure of his fame was builded. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
