Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Class of 1878, Vol. 5: Secretary s Report The arrangement for our Twenty-fifth anniversary celebration was left in the hands of the Class Committee and Secretary with F. W. Thayer added. Three circulars were sent out by the committee. The first to secure signatures for degrees for the four men whom a canvass of the class showed to be most eligible; the second asking for subscriptions towards a fund and a clock that it was proposed to give to the Harvard Union; and the third and last, sent on June 2, giving an outline of the proposed celebration. The committee did not decide upon the final details without mature deliberation. A dinner at the Secretary s, a supper at Nat Thayer s, a dinner at the Union Club given by Julian Mead, and another supper at Nat Thayer s were necessary for their completion. Worcester was in California and so not a part of our deliberations. The Secretary would here speak of the obligations that he is under to the committee. He meant to have...
