By Jack Lee Bronson

Jack Lee Bronson, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Jack Lee Bronson parted company with HM Royal Marines six years ago. Then a Captain, now a free agent, he travels where he likes, when he likes. He saw a lot of good people getting a raw deal when he was growing up. It imbued him with a passion to help them fight back. He s a man of the people, not the elites. He specialized in military intelligence after commando training. This harrowing account finds him crossing Dartmoor, a desolate tract deep in South West England. A man in camouflage fires a stinger across the road just ahead. Bronson s tyres are blown and his car somersaults down onto jagged rock. Seconds later an IED detonates. Someone s intent on taking him out. Two military police show up. They accuse him of planting the IED. He s thrown into a brutal prison. Framed on a trumped up charge. He wakes to a woman screaming. Three crazed inmates have seized a female officer. They strip, whip and gang rape her, leaving her for dead. Meanwhile, a spiralling bank card scam has the local...
