

Uncursing the Dark: Treasures from the Underworld (Hardback)

By Betty Deshong Meador

Chiron Publications, 2013. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Rendered in breathtaking poetry, Betty De Shong Meador begins her exploration with the myth of Inanna s descent to the underworld. She presents this dark, psychological journey of feminine enlightenment as a positive and necessary gift of one s full individuality and creative nature. Her description of a Blessingway Sing reveals the balance of feminine and masculine achieved in the Navajo culture. A critique of Doris Lessing s novels captures the felt sense of descent and discovery. Research on a Greek women s ritual-the Thesmophoria- and a survey of recent archeological findings from the ancient goddess cultures add history and substance to the ideas of the feminine. A clinical study of the relationship between female therapist and female client demonstrate one contemporary mode for such exploration. Thus we learn that there are many routes for exploring the lost initiations of women into the progress of their souls and the ways of the Goddess. While women adapted to a patriarchal culture over the past three thousand years or more, the essential female element has been repressed. Consequently, women have experienced themselves as less than...
