MY ARABIC HOUSE 2: RAYANUTULLUGHA (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Large Print. Language: Arabic . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. My Arabic house is a series of books that have been written with the sole aim of teaching Arabic language to children between the ages of 5 to 7 years. Rayanutullugha is the first book of this series. I have drawn upon my own personal experience in teaching Arabic Language to children of this particular age group during the production of these books. For me choosing the correct curriculum for this particular age group proved to be difficult as I found that an Arabic curriculum designed for native speakers of Arabic did not particularly suit children living in a non-Arabic country. I found that this was due to the vast differences in culture and the educational environment. Therefore it was deemed essential to design a syllabus which took into account all the difficulties and addressed them. This publication aims to: - Teach the Arabic letters, both short and long vowels. This can be done in either one academic year, during which the number of lessons reflects the number of academic weeks in weekend schools, or in two to three years when the Arabic is taught as a supplementary subject wherein children need time to consolidate vocabulary and enhance their reading and writing. - Take into account individual differences among children and teach them in a manner so that each child will benefit and learn to the best of their ability. Each child should be able to distinguish between short and long vowels and read simple words correctly. - Connect the child with his current surroundings through easy and interesting stories so he can express himself in Arabic confidently. - Subconsciously instil into the child the moral guidance..
