Path Publishing, Incorporated, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Creative Hearts is a caring, insightful, and powerful collection of poems by two women who loved each other and their families. Creative Hearts is written by a mother and daughter reflecting their life experiences. At times spiritual, at times joyful, at times melancholy, Creative Hearts captures the spectrum of emotions in a fresh and passionate collection. Sectioned by Remembering, Gratitude, Nature, Trials, and Laughter, the collection covers the spectrum of human experience. It is an engaging dialogue and a joyful tribute to the bond between mother and daughter. This paragraph is from Pat Tyrer s introduction. When I decided to put together a collection of my own poetry, I felt that it would be appropriate to combine my work with my mother s. After all, it was she who inspired me to write. What is presented here is a combined collection of our work. I hope you will enjoy reading these works as much as I enjoyed reviewing, sorting, and collecting them. From the publisher: Creative Hearts may inspire other mothers and daughters to combine their creative works, leaving a legacy for generations. Imagine if you had in your possession the writings of a mother and daughter from a long past generation in your family, perhaps going back to the 1800s or even 1700s. Or if not writings, their quilts or paintings- whatever their creative pursuits might have been. Wouldn t you feel that you owned possessions to be prized? The divisions within the book unite their lives. Though each woman had different experiences, they were also similar- much as a painter has differing strokes for two portraits, yet when looking at the paintings later, side by side, they also have similarities in face...
