Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Faith ; the 1st Storybook in Don s Navigating The Clouds Without A GPS Trilogy tells the tale of a middle aged, divorced guy finding himself in a time of his life where he feels he s lost in a lost world. He begins searching for a deeper and more meaningful existence. As his quest unfolds he realizes he can no longer Go it alone and soon rediscovers his faith in God. While on this new path he also becomes reacquainted with one of his greatest enjoyments of his teen years; motorcycle riding. While basking in the excitement of his newly rediscovered faith in Christ he is in awe of the many grace moments he s presented with. It is through one of those grace moments of his rediscovered faith, hope and love in Christ which leads him to an exciting adventure that will change his life forever; a new love. She is a blue eyed Irish country lass the likes he has never before experienced; an exceptional grace moment in his life. Together these two rode their Harleys along the winding curves of the Oklahoma highways while a deep soulful love found them both and enveloped them like no other love they had ever experienced. Their plans were to grow old together while riding side by side until the unimaginable took place 9 months after they became husband and wife; a sudden and tragic loss, an evening in which Kathy rode her Harley to heaven. Don survived physically but was extremely damaged emotionally. Would he survive? Faith ; the 1st Storybook in the Navigating The Clouds Without A GPS Trilogy chronicles Don s story in such a way that many...
