Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from New Netherland in 1640 In 1655 he published at Alckmaer his Short Historical and Journal Notes, wherein are described what battles he has had by water; each country its animals, birds, kind of fishes and savage men, - counterfeited to the life - and the woods and rivers with their products. He styles himself, on the title-page, ordnance-master of the Most Noble Lords, the Committed Council of the States of West Friesland the North Quarter. The volume was a small quarto of 192 pages, with a portrait of De Vries, and eighteen plates, twelve of them relating to the Indians and natural history of America. The sections describing the three voyages to New Netherland were translated by Henry C. Murphy, and published in the Collections of the New York Historical Society, Second Series, vol. lii., Part I., 18 57; and from this translation the present leaflet is made up. It is remarkable, says Mr. Murphy in his introduction, that. After Hudson, only one of the numerous Dutch navigators and travellers has, as far as is known, published a journal or narrative of voyages to New Netherland during the possession of the country by their nation. De Vries, he says. Was a bold and skilful seaman. He was a religious man, and held the strongest Calvinistic doctrines. His narratives, where he speaks from personal knowledge, are entitled to the highest credit, for not only do they bear internal evidence of truth, but they have been corroborated in many instances by other evidence and by the records which we have; and, being his daily observations, taken down at the time, they have from this circumstance a value...
