Such is the prediction of the royal psalmist respecting the Christian church. lie commences the psalm with a glowing description of the excellency and dignity of the Messiah, her founder and head. My heart, he says, is inditing a good matter, or more literally, boileth or bubbleth up a good word. I speak of the things which I have made touching the King My tongue is the pen of a ready writer. He was, says Bishop Horne, full of the divine spirit, which inspired him with the good word or the glad tidings of salvation. The sacred fire enclosed in his heart, expanded itself within, till at length it broke forth with impetuosity to enlighten and revive mankind with the glorious prediction touching the King, the Messiah; and this...
