Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .BLURB Have you ever been curious about the Fetish scene? About having the attention of the hottest, deadliest vampires out there, all out for your pleasure? Well, Sara lives that life daily. Normally, it's good to her, but one night the delicate stability in which the entire scene balances blows up in her face, and turns her world upside down, until she doesn't know which way is up. Her boyfriend Gene senses her disquiet, and turns his attention to where her veiled interests now lay. Loren is a rich cultured four-century-old vampire, who has his sights set on Sara, and has made it his prerogative have her at any cost. EXCERPT You know I crave to see your pleasure. Loren brushed my hair back, ignoring the others. And these two, as you would so eloquently say, will blow your mind. But, what about. I stumbled on my words. I couldn't banish the involuntary thought of Gene before someone caught it. That man you think of, Keoni said under his breath, is not worth your time. There are much better things in life than to think of once was, or could've been. Especially when it's a memory that should be forever banished. The cadence to his voice was erotic, and hearing him speak for the first time jumbled my brain. Craving filled me to hear it again. Completely insignificant, Adoniia concurred. The movement allowed his glossy hair to fall past his shoulders and conceal him, but one iridescent eye peaked out from between the strands. He was another matter, and in a class of his own making. I've told you this. Loren promised. I glanced at him and noticed...
