Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Historical Sketches of Woman s Missionary Societies in America and England Manifestly, the chief purpose and work of the Christian church is to be about its Father s business in recovering to him the lost allegiance of the race. Only as we have some comprehension of the magnitude and some conviction of the importance of this work, - only as we gauge it from the height of God s love to the depth of man s need, - through all its manifold relations, out, on, into the illimitable, unspeakable future, do we realize that for its completion there must be the effectual working in its measure of every part, the development and exercise of every force. Manhood and womanhood must each bring its distinctive offerings as of old, in the typical tabernacle and temple, before throughout the whole earth shall arise an holy temple unto the Lord. The paeon of praise is to Be universal, but the harmony will not be complete until there be added to the deep bass and strong tenor, the trill..
