Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1915 Excerpt: .about the first of April. The officers of that local desire affiliation with the National and will use their influence to that end. Summing up our organization work for the year, while we have reasons to congratulate ourselves upon what has been done, we must also express some disappointment at the failure of several cities to go on with their organization or to affiliate with the National Body when organized. In this connection Galesburg, Pekin, Joliet and Kankakee, Illinois; Lafayette and Kokomo, Indiana; Ashland and Sandusky, Ohio, might be mentioned. During the year $592.97 was expended by your secretary for organization work. The admission fees together with the per capita tax secured and to be secured from the new members, and the Local revived, will nearly equal this amount. In other words, nearly all the amount expended in this work has or will come back to us during the year. The statistical table herewith presented will show the members secured during the year together with the exact condition of each local association, so far as the local secretary has given his report on the new blank forms. In this connection it might be well to raise the question, whether the efforts during the coming year should be devoted to organizing local associations or make the attempt to organize state associations and let the state carry on the local organization work. I sincerely trust that this convention will give very serious consideration to the matter of organization...
