Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Paisley Stephenson is a 25-year-old, young lady that is from Memphis, TN. She is ambitious and determined to have a successful life just as her parents have. Growing up, Paisley was always taught to go hard at everything that she does, and take on the world if necessary to get to where she needed to be. Using her parent s relationship as a blueprint for her own life, Paisley sets out to begin her journey. She finished High School, meets the love of her life, buys a home and acquires her realtor s license. And then while trying to accomplish her own dreams, Paisley motivates her young, husband Nahir Stephenson who is just a year older to start his landscaping company, which he does. For three of the four blissfully married years that the young couple has been together, they seem to be doing everything right. Paisley and Nahir support one another, they love each other, they have date nights, host parties, and they both are still focusing on building a legacy in which their future kids can soon model. Each feels as though they have life figured out, and that nothing should ever come in between them as long as they stick together and follow the simple plan that has been set for them. But what Paisley and Nahir didn t realize was that things aren t that easy. There is no simple checklist to follow for your marriage to work. It requires so much more to make it last. The most important factor is that there must be trust. When a situation occurs in Paisley s family, it causes her to breakdown, and of course, she turns to Nahir...
