Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ten Letters on the Subject of Slavery May it not be, that God, in his providence, sent the Africans to this country, that they might receive the light of the Gospel, and that from amongst them, he might gather into his kingdom many precious souls? May not the language of Joseph to his brethren, be precisely appropriate to those who, for gain, tore them from their country But as for you, ye thought evil against me, etc. And if such was God s merciful design in sending them to this country, did not His pro vidence call upon the American churc es to see to it, that the Gospel should be preached to them? I am persuaded you will not deny, that such was one of the purposes of God, in permitting the existence of American slavery; for it is a fact - a soul-cheering fact, in connection with a painful subject - that the Holy Spirit has called multitudes of them into his kingdom. You, of course, believe that God wisely adapts means to ends. The end designed, as you will not deny, was the con version and salvation of a multitude of those degraded Africans. A part of the means was the sending of them to these United States. Now, brethren, let me earnestly ask - What. Have Abolitionists done toward the conversion of the slaves in this country? To what extent have they obeyed the call of God s providence, to preach to them the unsearchable riches of Christ? Who have been the instruments in the conversion and salvation of the multitudes of them who have become Christians in the slave States? The Abolitionists. You must candidly acknowledge, have...
