The divine Founder of our holy faith, having all power in heaven and on earth given unto Him, authorized and commissioned his disciples, - not the few only Whom he had gathered about him, but in a broader sense the multitude of his followers and believers in increasing numbers downthrough the agos, - He commanded to Go and teach, disci ple all nations, baptizing them, and said he, As ye go, preach, and the command to 90 was accompanied by the promise, Lo I am with you always. This is the Mission ary s great commission. What more does he want? Here he takes his stand, confident and conscious that he is never alone 5 that amidst the most difficult circumstances, in the most trying hour, help is always at hand, and underneath are the everlasting arms.
