THE OBERLIN QUARTERLY REVIEW: JANUARY, 1849 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Oberlin Quarterly Review: January, 1849 I. The next inquiry which arises is, the conditions on which we are required to exercise this peculiar form of love towards any individuals or classes of men. As the precept requiring its exercise has its basis in one fact exclusively, the actual existence of moral purity, so this precept binds us to its exercise relatively to particular individuals or classes of men, when and only when the actual existence of such purity in them has been manifested to us as in their visible conduct. By their fruits ye shall know them. Holiness manifested is the exclusive condition of obligation to exercise brotherly love towards any persons whatever. However holy and pure an individual may be, no obligation rests upon us to esteem and treat him as such, till we have the means of knowing his character as it is.
