---

By Rose Jackson-Beavers

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 109 pages. Have you felt lost and hurt thinking that your problems were so big that they couldnt be fixed Darrius McMillan, who is 13 years old, couldnt see the love and support he had in his life because he was so blinded by what he didnt have. While going through trials such as sickness, death and dealing with a mother who used drugs, he found his strength in the love of his grandmother. His grandmother taught him that prayer changed things. A Hole in My Heart is set in the authors home-town of East St. Louis. This book addresses the impact that drugs have on the entire family, especially the children. Rose Jackson-Beavers grew up in East St. Louis, Illinois and received her Bachelor and Master degrees from Illinois State and Southern Illinois Universities. She is a program director in the Social Service Industry. She spends her time working in church and volunteering her time to local organizations throughout her community. She has worked as a freelance writer for both magazines and local newspapers. Currently, she writes a column for a local newspaper.
