Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Unexplored Self: An Introduction to Christian Doctrine for Teachers and Students Among the prospective teachers who came under my instruction at Yale University and at Carleton College, I discovered a sense of unpreparedness for the definitely religious influence which a schoolroom must have, even though no religion is taught. Furthermore, students with whom I have talked seem to have perplexingly wrong ideas as to the content of Christianity. It is the teachers and students that have been primarily in mind in the preparation of this Introduction to Christian Doctrine. The beginnings of this volume, however, go back a long way. After graduation, I set out indefinitely to follow up my statement in the class book as to my object in life, viz., to discover as far as possible the purpose in existence, and so far as that purpose was found, to carry out my share in it. After drifting here and there I had the good fortune to take a long journey on horseback with another newspaper correspondent, who was thoroughly familiar with the philosophies...
