

Overflow Poetically Edifying Expressions

By Abdalla Straker

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 124 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. I was introduced to the poetry of Abdalla Straker when he became a student of mine in Honors English courses at South Carolina State University. Overflow, his second book of poems, is a continuation of a fascinating journey through several motifs that still undergird his deep, spiritual ideals. When taking this journey, the reader will be able to detect poems that are arranged in five distinctive categories. The reader will be able to get a glimpse of the personal side of the author in the section titled About Me. Revelations gives us his life experiences that we can all find something to connect, associate, or identify as a similar experience in our own personal lives. Love explores relationships, triumphs and sorrows that can often occur with surprise and anticipation. In the To Trinidad and Tobago with Love section, he pays homage to the pride and traditions of his rich culture. In the section Our Rise, the poet discusses the right to pursue dreams. Our poet concludes his journey with the section called Poetic Prayer, where he again, shares his strong, spiritual commitment. There is also a relevant, thought-provoking poem...
