Thomas A. Daschle, Chairman of the subcommittee, presiding. Present or submitting a statement: Senators Daschle, Craig and Cochran. Senator Craig presiding. This hearing will come to order, and I would ask all of those who are witnesses to come up, find your name, and just sit at the table. Senator Daschle, our Chairman, is running a little late, and he has asked me to go ahead and start this hearing today. In the format that he appreciates, and I do, too, we will have you all seated at the table and ask each one of you to give your thoughts and reflections on the issue, and then we will get you all involved in a give-and-take discussion of the questions that we would like to ask. I especially want to thank the participants for their preparation and their involvement and also to recognize some participants that we have here from Idaho today, from the Potlatch Corporation, Kevin Doling, Bill Wall, and Dennis Murphy. This ecosystem hearing is the second in a series which will continue through this legislative year. The first hearing we held was November 9, 1993. Its focus was on policy definitions, goals, and coordination between agencies. Various agencies were called upon to describe the ecosystem policies they were developing. In this second hearing today, we would like to focus on various innovations,...
